

Please Please allow broadband over power lines. My cable company sucks and I want better internet. DSL wont work. My power is great! Also my power company. I want options in my Inet acess. And the power company has a great line into my house. Why not let them use it! Lets use what we got, not make more.